Mr. James L. Harrison
Joint Committee on Printing
Senate Office Building
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Harrison:

May I personally express my deep appreciation for the timely assistance you have rendered in the matter of the conduct of our reproduction and printing operations. Your suggestions have provided us with a clearer idea of the means for making this activity more efficient and, I sincerely hope, economical. As you know, [redacted] is working intimately on this problem, and from my relatively amateurish point of view I am particularly impressed with what I choose to call the "out-of-balance" situation which you so clearly pointed out.

STATINTL

I sincerely hope that your look at our installations may prove of assistance to your committee in future consideration of problems which may arise.

Thank you again for your offer of continued suggestions which I most certainly will take advantage of.

Kindest Regards,

/S/

Walter Reid Wolf
Deputy Director
(Administration)
